LaRome Hinton

Mitigation Project Manager

"LaRome Hinton is a driven person who strives to be the best there is in everything he does. LaRome is a great leader, he embraces the culture at Skyline and expects the same from his team!"

"LaRome is an important part of Skyline DKI because he is steadfast in what needs to be done and very meticulous in the field of restoration."

"LaRome is hardworking, sincere, and someone that we can all count on. His humor makes it REALLY easy to like him!!"

Do you have an office nickname?

"Zero" (but only Lily knows it) and "Romeo"

Something they don't know about me..

"I'm very athletic. I'm not scared of mice and rodents. That photo floating around of me standing on a chair or table is for another reason."

How did you first learn about Skyline DKI?

"I saw their trucks going by a lot and heard of them in passing. I applied online when I wanted a change of scenery."

What made you stay at Skyline DKI?

- "The challenge: You think you know it all and something else comes up. You're being challenged every day."
- The upper management and how much they invest into their employees.
- The new wave of restoration: Skyline DKI is more technology driven while others are more pen and paper at their companies.
- How much I've learned in a short time versus how much I learned during ten years at one company."

What do you find the most challenging about working at Skyline DKI?

"It's a challenge not reverting to bad work habits or the old ways of doing restoration. You have to be consistent."

How has Skyline DKI helped you in your career development?

"They hold you accountable. They push you to become better and prepare you to handle more."

What advice do you have for prospective Skyline DKI candidates?

"Be prepared to work. You have to be a team player with a positive attitude and stay focused on the company's goal."
